GRAND SLAM
Tokyo, 2013

Marius L. VIZER
IJF President

The last Grand Slam of the year will again be organized in Tokyo, Japan. It represents a lot to the whole judo family to be able to come back every year to Japan, where Judo was founded by Jigoro Kano.

This season was particularly busy with ten Grand Prix and four Grand Slams, one World Judo Master and the World Judo Championships, which were held in Rio de Janeiro, last August.

Since the World Judo Championships, Tokyo has been designated as the Host city of the 2020 Olympic Games. Therefore, the 2013 edition of the Grand Slam will already be put in the framework of the preparation of the Games.

I would like to warmly thank the All Japan Judo Federation for their great and professional work. Once again the best athletes in the world and of the moment will gather together in the Japanese Capital city and will have the opportunity to feel the Japanese spirit which influenced the creation of our sport.

I wish good luck to all the participants and to the organizers. Our IJF team will be at your disposal during your stay in Tokyo.

Shoji MUNEOKA
President, All
Japan Judo
Federation

The Grand Slam Tokyo 2013, which has come back to the Tokyo Metropolitan Gymnasium for the first time in two years, is about to face its grand opening. On behalf of the Organizer, I would like to extend my heartfelt welcome not only to the members of the International Judo Federation but also to all the competitors and officials visiting Japan from various countries/areas.

After being renamed from the former "Jigoro Kano Cup," the Grand Slam Tokyo celebrates its fifth anniversary this year. A number of best and strong competitors, including some top performers and medalists in the World Judo Championship held in Rio de Janeiro, Brazil, August this year, will also join the competitions.

Having been founded by Kano Jigoro Shihan, Judo has been very popular and widely spread all over the world at present. It is imperative for us to properly succeed not only its aspect of competitive sport but also the concept of "resourceful human development," which has been primarily focused by Professor Kano, and to promote and develop Judo furthermore.

I am looking forward to seeing all the competitors, as honorable representatives of the global Judo, respect Judo manners fully, compete fairly while trying to win by "Ippon" and fascinate all the Judo fans and enthusiasts all over the world.

I also hope that all the competitors and officials from overseas will promote their friendly exchange among other participants and enjoy the events.

Last but not least, I would like to extend my deep appreciation to all those who have worked hard for organizing the Grand Slam events.
